

FREE ONLINE TAX ASSISTANCE

IRS Website – <http://www.irs.gov>

Official site of the government sponsored Internal Revenue Service; provides authoritative and comprehensive information pertaining to tax forms and publications, Federal tax statistics and assistance for e-filing and electronic payment options.

MSN MoneyCentral Taxes - <http://moneycentral.msn.com/tax/home.asp>

Microsoft's Tax preparation site with easy to use, easy to navigate assistance links to income tax credits, deductions, and personal assessment calculators for you and your family.

Tax and Accounting Sites Directory – <http://www.taxsites.com>

A comprehensive catalog of well-indexed tax and accounting resources on the internet with easily navigable index of tax topics.

Taxopedia.com – <http://www.taxopedia.com>

Well-referenced and informative information resource for tax questions relating to taxes and financial planning. Includes a complete glossary of terms needed for tax preparation and filing.

H&R Block First Filers – <http://www.hrblock.com/learning/firstfilers/>

Unique site offering plain-text tips to working teens and young people who are doing their own taxes. Although intended for limited income teenagers, this site is well-worth browsing for anyone who is doing their own taxes.

Texas Taxes - <http://www.window.state.tx.us/taxes/>

Official website for the Texas State Comptroller covering the various aspects pertaining to individual publications and forms, tax code statutes, and calendars for personal filing procedures for Texas state residents.

TaxACT Online – <http://www.taxactonline.com/>

Offers free online e-filing for income tax returns. Also answers questions and concerns about personal information. Safe and secure site for navigating and inputting private data.

CNN/Money: Taxes – <http://money.cnn.com/pf/taxes>

Wide-ranging website with loads of tax tips for beginners and answers to all kinds of questions. Also contains news and current information about recent changes in the tax filing process.