Some Secret Activities:

Fun things to do together:

* Have a discussion with your parents or an older brother or sister about the difference between a secret and a surprise. What kinds of things would be a secret? What kinds of things would be a surprise?

* Create a nice little surprise for your parents. You can make them a beautiful picture, clean your room for them, or do something else special. Can you keep it a secret until it is time to show them?

* Hide something in a pillow case or bag that no one can see into. You can also have a parent, brother or sister, or friend do this for you. Have someone else (or yourself) feel the object inside the bag or pillowcase. Have them guess the secret of what is in the bag. Make sure that it is something harder to guess, so the fun can last a while.

I Have a Secret

("A Tisket, A Tasket")

A secret, a secret

I have a little secret.

I cannot tell anybody else,

For it is a surprise.

Please don't ask, don't ask me,

About my little secret.

For if I ruin the surprise,

I will be so sad.
