Fun things to do together:

- * Let your child help you with a few chores or just have them pretend to wash dishes or vacuum just like you or let them handle simple chores like putting their clothes in the hamper
- * "Mail" box activity: let your toddler play with some junk mail or create some mail together, then take a box, cut a slit into it, and let your toddler "mail" the letters
- * Make a batch of cookies together and let your toddler lay the cookies onto the baking sheet or help you stir the batter
