“Mary Had a Little Lamb”

Will you be a friend of mine,

Friend of mine, friend of mine.

_____ is a friend of mine,

(put in as many names as you want)

Friendly things to do together:

- * Address the different steps of meeting new people and making new friends and what they do together: shaking hands, discussing favorite things, playing games: Friendship Day is August 7, 2011.
- * Make some flash cards out of pictures of your toddler's friends, and play a “who's this” game with them.
- * Having a friend over and playing with the same toy (such as cars, dolls, shapes...) is a great way of learning and having fun together. You can also ask your toddler ahead of time which toys are not okay for their friends to play with.
