Some Dress Up Activities:

* Let your toddler go through your closet or dad's closet and pick out an outfit to try on. They can also "be the mommy" or "be the daddy" while they are wearing the outfit. They can also pretend to be anything else when where the outfit. Imagination fun! You can also have a pretend fashion show with the outfits.

* There are lots of "dress up" games on the Internet, where your toddler can help picking out the outfits to "dress up" the little character in the game. You can also discuss what order you would put on the clothes while playing. One game is dressing Caillou at <http://pbskids.org/caillou/games/dresscaillou.html>.

* Discuss with your child what each member of the family would wear, what they usually do, etc. It is interesting to see how your toddler thinks of the members of their family.

A Dress Up Song

I Can Be All Sorts of Things
("Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star")

For fun today I was a pirate,
With my parrot and a pirate hat.
Tomorrow I'd rather be vet,
Wear a doctor's coat and help my cat .

When I play "dress up" you will see,
I can be all sorts of things.
We will play the whole day through,
Because I love pretending with you.
