Some Shoe Activities:

Fun things to do together:

- * Pull out some of your shoes, your toddlers shoes, and anyone else's shoes you choose. Put them in a box so they are all mixed up. Have your toddler match the two shoes together. Who does your toddler think wear those shoes? What do you wear the shoes for? Any special occasions?
- * Have your toddler walk in your shoes or someone else's shoes. As your toddler is walking, ask them what color the shoes are? Are they heavy? Is it hard to walk in them? You can also take an old pair of your toddler's shoes, if you still have them. Have your toddler try them on. Why won't they fit anymore?
- * Discuss different ways of wearing the shoes: why do some have laces (what do you do with the laces), Velcro, no fasteners, etc...

My Shoes

("Skip to My Lou")

I have two shoes, how about you,
I have two shoes, how about you,
I have two shoes, how about you,
Stomp with your shoes like I do.

Two shoes can be replaced with 'Tennis shoes',
'big shoes', 'old shoes', 'new shoes' 'blue shoes', etc.)
